TEMPERANCE NOTES.—There seems to be a regular old fashioned revival among the temperance people. They held a meeting at Washington Hall yesterday afternoon and the hall was filled to its utmost capacity and a great many were turned away for the want of standing room. The Funeral of Jesse Wheat.—A large number of the Eighth ward citizens, yesterday, attonded the funeral of their fellow citizen Jesse Wheat. At the house the services were conducted by Rev. J. D. Moffat, of the Second, and Rev. Mr. Lysle, of the Third Presbyterian Churches. The members of the Board of Education were present in a body, and also the teachers of the Eighth ward school. A beautiful pillow of white flowers, in the centre of which were the words ingenious contrived from dark ones, "Our Friend," was presented by the Eighth ward teachers. Messrs. Stephen Waterhouse, jr., Lott Joy, Thos. Ratcliffe, Joseph Seybold, George Bowers, sr., and Edward Steele acted as pall-bearers. The interment took place at the Peninsula Cemetery.

More Light.—We call the attention of the City Gas Office to the fact that not a lamp on Market street was lighted last evening until near 7 o'clock. We heard several growling about it after nearly running over persons whom they could not see in the darkness. It gets dark at 5 to clock these days, and that's the time the lamps ought to be lighted. The lamplighter who tends to the lamps on Market street between Tenth and Eighth streets needs stirring up. The street named has been in total darkness for the past three weeks from 5 o'clock until 7 o'clock—the time it is most used—and the people in that neighborhood would like to see a little reform in the matter.

WHEREAS, Death has removed our esteemed friend and fellow citizen, Josse S. Wheat, our sympathies and respect prompt to express the following:

Resolved, That in the death of Mr. Wheat this community has cause to mourn the loss of one who was identified with it in all that pertained to its progress and welfare. His efforts were extended in a vigorous manner to promote especially its educational interests; and our well-provided present advantages and privileges in this direction are, perhaps, more largely due to his labors than any other cause. His tastes were cultivated and resthetical—books, music and the botany of flowers were the constant companious of his downstie life. The reliable packet, Steamer Conrier, after a long retirement on account of low water, resumes her place in the Wheeling and Parkersburg trade to-day at 10:30 A. M. for Parkersburg trade to-day at 10:30 A. M. for Parkersburg. During the time she was laid up she has been oyerhauled and repaired in every respect, making her first-class in all of her departments. The Courier, as almost every one knows, has long been the favorite in the trade and one of the most successful the company ever owned. Capt. Thadeus Thomas will succeed Capt. Harrison as commander. Capt. Thomas being a thorough steamboatman will, no doubt, hold the Courier's well earned reputation. The office will be in charge of J. M. Gamble, her former clerk, assisted by Brook Dorsey. Andrew Harrison, her veteran mate, will take charge of her decks on her arrival at Parkersburg. Everybody knows "Andy." and will be glad to see him at his post.
